

CURRICULUM MAP

As Readers & Writers

Holes Narrative:

- Predicting what happens by writing the next chapter.

Non-Chronological Report:

- Yellow-spotted lizard and our own imagined creatures.

Biography:

- Young, Gifted and Black.

Continuous: handwriting, reading, phonics and spelling, grammar and punctuation.

Daily Reading at home. (x5)

Edshed practice at home. (x3)

As Mathematicians

Four Operations:

- Short/Long multiplication and division.
- Using the 4 operations in problems.
- BIDMAS
- Number types: prime, multiple, factor, square, cube.

Fraction Calculations:

- Multiplying and dividing fractions
- Adding and subtracting fractions.
- Ordering and comparing fractions.

As Scientists

Not a focus this half term – covered through extra lessons and theme day last half term.

As Theologians (RE)

Salvation:

- Was Jesus the Messiah?

Maafa: The Slave Trade (History)

CLASS: 6
TEACHER: Mrs Starr
TERM: Autumn 2022

As Computer Technologists

3D Modelling

- Tinkercad for computer aided design of a 3D model.
- Evaluating and improving models.

As Historians

Maafa:

- What was it like for a slave on the plantations?
- The abolition of slavery.
- Being critical of sources and considering their purpose.
- Linking the slave trade to life in Britain today.

As Geographers

Mapwork and Our Changing World:

- Time zones
- Longitude and Latitude
- Map Scale
- Locating using grid references.

As Athletes

Swimming (Tues until 15th November)

Sports Coach (Thurs)

As Artists

Trailblazers and Trend Setters:
famous black artists and slave trade artwork.

As Musicians

Charanga music:

- Happy/Classroom Jazz
- Glockenspiels

As Designers

Food for Life:

- Considering healthy homemade food options.
- Cooking Bread and Pasta sauce.

As St George Citizens

Jigsaw PSHE:

- Celebrating difference.