

CURRICULUM MAP

As Readers & Writers

Traditional Tales: The Little Red Hen

The Odd Fish, Not Now Bernard, Rosies Walk

Continuous: handwriting, reading, phonics and spelling, grammar and punctuation.

As Mathematicians

Place value within 10:

Sorting and counting objects.
Representing objects. Comparing groups
Recognising numbers as words.
Counting on and counting back
One more, one less
2D and 3D shapes

As Scientists

Everyday materials:

Identifying and grouping materials.
Man-made and Natural materials
Properties of materials.

As Theologians (RE)

Creation

Key Question: Who made the world?
Religion: Christianity

Pine Class

CLASS: 1
TEACHER: Mrs Cooper
TERM: Term 1 2025

As Computer Technologists

computing systems and networks:
technology around us

As Historians

What is History?

- Historical vocabulary;
- Timelines and decades;
- Our personal history
- Toys now and then

As Geographers

Our wonderful world

Human and Physical features
Positional language
Compass and Maps

As Athletes

Gymnastics: Shapes, wide, narrow, curled.
Health and well-being: movement and agility.

As Artists

Mix it up:

Mixing colours
the colour wheel
same and different

As Musicians

Hey You!

Pulse, rhythm and pitch

As Designers

- No specific focus during this part of term.

As St George Citizens

Staying Safe
Road Safety